Dear Andy,

I am writing this letter to express our appreciation for your service to Jetco Delivery. We retained your firm to provide consulting services in the areas of developing profitable growth and improving operating efficiency. Your experience and insight has been extremely valuable to us, especially as we navigated the 2009 economic downturn and subsequent recovery. You continue to be an important source of information and experience. We appreciate and are thankful for our relationship with Ahern & Associates.

Sincerely,
