RE: Andy Ahern and Ahern & Associates

I have known and had dealings with Andy Ahern and his firm in excess of 10 years. During this span of time we have developed both a personal and business relationship. My company has primarily used his services to identify potential companies for acquisition purposes. I have always found Andy and his firm to be honest and forthright, in all matters whether personal or professional.

I have found him to always be true to his word and have no reservations in offering this endorsement.
