Ahern & Associates Secures KEH Logistics as Additional Agent Location for Thomas & Sons Distributors

Transportation analyst, Andy Ahern aids Thomas & Sons Distributors in growing their agent network through the addition of Pennsylvania based, KEH Logistics.

Phoenix, AZ—Meeting and exceeding standards is nothing new for North America's leading transportation management consulting firm. When directed with the task of locating a brokerage agent that met Thomas & Sons' stringent criteria, Ahern & Associates delivered once again.

Oregon based Thomas & Sons Distributors recently engaged Ahern & Associates to utilize the full extent of their resources to locate an agent location that fit Thomas' business mix which resulted in the augmentation of KEH Logistics.

Quickly gaining a reputation as the "go-to" company in the field of trucking and logistics mergers and acquisitions, Ahern & Associates repeatedly demonstrates the core competency of efficiently completing deals that markedly benefit all parties involved. With over twenty years of acquisition experience within the transportation industry, Ahern & Associates often draws upon their expansive list of industry contacts which allows them to often times create markets where none may have existed previously.

Andy Ahern, CEO of Ahern & Associates comments, "I'm confident that KEH Logistics will make an excellent addition to Thomas & Sons' expanding brokerage network and we look forward to helping them expand in the future."
