

Ahern and Associates Hired by National 3PL, ParcelPort for Dual Acquisition Duties

Third party logistics provider, ParcelPort has engaged Ahern and Associates to further their logistics and warehousing acquisition strategy.

Phoenix, AZ (PRWEB) September 8, 2010 -- Trucking and logistics acquisition firm, Ahern and Associates, LLC has recently come to terms with Connecticut based ParcelPort, LLC., a third party logistics and warehousing company, to assist in their strategic acquisition plans which involves entering into the field of transportation and expanding their warehousing capabilities.

Ahern and Associates and their CEO, Andy Ahern are renowned for their broad depth of industry knowledge and skill in creating markets within transportation and will work with ParcelPort to locate two profitable acquisition targets which meet ParcelPort's requisites.

ParcelPort is currently seeking a domestic brokerage forwarding company with revenues between $4MM to $10MM, non-geographic specific. Additionally, ParcelPort aims to increase their warehousing capabilities through the acquisition of a 3PL shared warehousing company operating in one to two markets with revenues in the $3MM to $5MM range.

Vincent Gulisano, CEO of ParcelPort, LLC. comments on why they chose to hire Ahern and Associates: "I've worked with Andy Ahern in the past and know he can perform at a very high level and move quickly to help us fulfill our acquisition strategy."

Unmatched experience and deal making capabilities are what Ahern relies upon to serve his clients, explains Ahern: "We've been aiding companies like ParcelPort with multi-faceted acquisition strategies for over twenty years and are confident that we'll deliver results that meet or exceed their expectations."
