Andy Ahern of Ahern and Associates Improves Partnership Program; Offers New Benefit to Distressed Trucking Companies

Partnership program for trucking and logistics companies recently approved for financing of trailers, further easing strain on cash flow.

Phoenix, AZ--Ahern and Associates' exclusive partnership program which is offered to trucking and logistics companies struggling with cash flow issues now further eases operations burden by offering financing of trailers and freeing up cash once used to purchase equipment.

Ahern's partnership program works like a shot in the arm to transportation companies who have been adversely affected by the recent economy. Many trucking companies are experiencing troubles with not only cash flow, but also insurance, fuel, capital, back haul and equipment issues as well.

The program works hand in hand with companies who not only want to address operational issues, but also wish to grow their business by providing automobile and cargo legal liability insurance, fuel cards, worker's compensation insurance, receivable financing, customer credit checks, DOT log audits and more. Where previously the onus lied with the trucking company to purchase trailers, Ahern's expansion of their program now offers this coveted financing option.

Andy Ahern, CEO of Ahern and Associates, Ltd., comments, "I look forward to seeing the effects of this exciting addition to our partnership program and I'm confident that this will go a long way in helping distressed companies not only recover, but grow their operations."
